

NAOMI OSEI-ASEMANI

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,
PECULIAR INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

MOST OUTSTANDING FEMALE IN PRIMARY EDUCATION

She continues to work tirelessly to equip and improve what the pupils and students learn in their classrooms, as she believes this is the key to the child's future academic achievement. She was the Deputy Director of Training in the Controller and Accountant General's Department from 2005 to 2006 and the Accounts officer in the same Department from 1995 to 2004. One can trust that everything she shares with her community is based on her personal experiences as an educator and a mother. It is her aim that every child receives a higher level of education which has led her to fund a number of underprivileged children's education from the basic level through to the tertiary levels both in Ghana and abroad.

Her good work and amiable personal qualities can be summarized thus: "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all." (Proverbs 31:29)

Mrs. Osei-Asemanni is a wife and a mother of three children.

Her good work and amiable personal qualities can be summarized thus: "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all." (Proverbs 31:29)

Mrs. Naomi Osei-Asemanni has been the CEO and Director of Peculiar International School since 2001 till date, with the responsibilities of managing and directing the day-to-day affairs of the school as well as managing staff and the finances of same.

Through her innovativeness, Peculiar International School now runs curricula from three separate educational systems. These are the Montessori system, Cambridge Primary, IGCSE and Advanced Level as well as the Ghana Education Service (GES) curriculum.

Mrs. Osei-Asemanni is a passionate educationist who holds Post Graduate Diploma in Education, Master of Arts in Leadership Innovation and Change and Master of Philosophy in Religious Studies.

Mrs. Naomi Osei-Asemanni (r), receiving her award at the 8th Feminine Ghana Achievement Awards